To Whom It May Concern,

It is frustrating and annoying to be asked whether I have reported any other crimes to the police in the last 12 months, as this is irrelevant to the matter at hand. I am writing to report a specific incident that constitutes harassment and is deeply offensive to me.

On [June 24, 2025], during a phone call, I was deliberately called by a name that is offensive and not my legal name. I have previously made it clear that this term is unacceptable and cannot be used to address me. Despite this, the individual persisted in using it, which I find to be a targeted and intentional act of disrespect. As an autistic person who has legally changed my name by deed poll to reflect my identity, I find this insistence particularly distressing and unacceptable.

This behavior is not only offensive but also a form of harassment, and I will not tolerate it. I wish to pursue this matter to the fullest extent possible and seek prosecution for this latest instance, ensuring that appropriate consequences are enforced.

Signed,
